

I was born in the former Yugoslavia and immigrated to the United States at age 7. I grew up playing at every level of soccer from youth to the New York Cosmos and US National teams.

I am in the US National Soccer Hall of Fame and have served on the Board of Directors for the US Federation. I have a passion for the development of youth players and perhaps my playing and service background and experience may benefit our association and soccer community.